

A MEMORIAL IS CHOSEN AS A LASTING TRIBUTE TO A LOVED ONE, EVOKING CHERISHED MEMORIES AND CREATING A LASTING LEGACY FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS.

Most of us at some time in our life are faced with the painful task of choosing a suitable memorial for a loved one. The memorial you choose will forever honour the life of someone you love.

Incorporated within this brochure you will find a wide variety of memorial styles, sizes and colours, from standard memorials to bespoke creations reflecting a loved one's pastime or interests.

There are no limits to styles of monuments that can be produced, any memorial dimensions can be tailored to suit the rules and regulations for any cemetery or burial place.

As memorial manufacturers we can produce any memorial even if it is not shown in the brochure so please enquire with our carefully trained staff who are able to help with any guidance and assistance you may require.

CHOOSE A MEMORIAL WITH THE HELP AND UNDERSTANDING OF A NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MEMORIAL MASONS MEMBER (OR BRAMM)

WHAT MAKES A MEMORIAL?

Memorials are usually erected in cemeteries or churchyards.

They need to be of a material that:

- will withstand the weather,
- can take a lasting, carved inscription,
- and, at a later date, is suitable for shaping and ornamentation.

Time has shown that natural stone (i.e. stone, slate, marble and granite) has all these qualities.

CHOOSING A MEMORIAL

A memorial is a lasting monument, tribute to a person's life, perhaps a final gift to someone dearly loved, therefore it is important to choose carefully.

Hasty decisions made while still in great distress frequently result in later regrets, so it can be sensible to wait and to spend time on selecting a suitable design.

SELECTING A MEMORIAL MASON

You may wish to use a company recommended by a friend or relative, or you may need to look around. Whichever you do, it is generally advisable to use one which specialises in memorial masonry.

The company should understand stone and so be able to give you reliable advice as to whether the stone you are choosing is suitable for the type of memorial you require and for the area in which it is to be fixed. Weather, pollution and surrounding vegetation can have an effect on this.

Members of the National Association of Memorial Masons (NAMM) are bound to strict Codes of Business and Working Practice and, should a dispute unfortunately arise, by the findings of a free and objective Conciliation and Arbitration Service.

NAMM members must have Public & Products Liability Insurance of no less than £5 million, Employee Liability Insurance of no less than £10 million and must also give a guarantee of the stability of their memorial.

Many masons will have been accredited by NAMM to use the Code of Working Practice - Fixing Safe Memorials.

WHAT YOU MAY CHOOSE

Burials

In general cemeteries and churchyards usually have regulations governing the kinds of memorials and, sometimes, the inscriptions and ornamentation they will allow. These vary from place to place and so need to be checked before any choice is made.

Cremation

There are often special areas for the burial of cremated remains. Some just have a central memorial commemorating all those buried nearby. In others, headstones or plaques can be erected on the individual plots.

OBTAINING PERMISSION

Before a memorial may be erected in a churchyard or cemetery, written permission has to be obtained from its management. Your NAMM memorial mason will organise this for you.

THE INITIAL ENQUIRY

It is important to obtain a written estimate clearly setting out full details, together with all the costs of the memorial you are considering. The estimate should include details of the memorial including size, material, lettering, any ornamentation and finishes. Also, it should include the cost of the secure installation of the memorial on a proper foundation together with the cemetery or churchyard fees (NO VAT.) NB. Lettering and ornamentation can be hand carved, sand blasted or machine cut. These options and the different types of stone available all vary in price.

If you obtain estimates from more than one company, do check them carefully to make sure you really are comparing like with like.

PLACING THE ORDER

When placing the order you will be asked to pay a deposit, with the balance of the agreed price payable later. Before signing to confirm your order it is important to check it thoroughly. Be particularly careful that the wording and spelling of the inscription, and any dates, are shown correctly. Any alterations should be confirmed immediately and in writing. NB. Unless you give definite written instructions to the contrary, the layout of the inscription may be left to the letter carver. The availability of the materials, the complexity of design and the condition of the ground will effect the time the memorial will take to complete.

Again a reputable memorial mason will advise you.

or BRAMM Accredited Mason

WHY CHOOSE A NAMM/BRAMM MEMBER TO FIX YOUR MEMORIAL

A memorial is a lasting tribute perpetuating a life, it therefore needs to be well made and securely erected. Often it is difficult for a person buying a memorial to assess the quality and workmanship that should be expected. So, to avoid unnecessary future expense, regret or even distress, it is advisable to choose a memorial mason who is required to work to certain specific standards.

Choosing a member of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MEMORIAL MASONS offers safeguards.
EIGHT REASONS for PURCHASING a MEMORIAL from a MEMBER of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION of MEMORIAL MASONS

1. All members are expected to carry out memorial work to standards acceptable to the Association.

6. All members are encouraged to take part in training schemes, seminars and craft competitions organised by the Association to promote high standards of craftsmanship.
7. All members are able to offer memorial insurance through schemes approved by the Association - these cover all risks, including vandalism.
8. All members are bound by the findings of the Association's Independent Conciliation and Arbitration Service should any problem arise

NAMM Safety System For All Memorials

(Please Note: This system is mandatory in many cemeteries and church yards)

The new system does not prevent tilting due to subsidence. It is purely a safety anchor to reduce the danger of the stone toppling over.

If a memorial begins to tilt, it can become dangerous. cement joint becomes weathered and without being secured this memorial can be very unstable. But if the safety bar is used, then the memorial can only fall very slowly thus allowing time to move out of it's way, avoiding injury.

Important Note:

All memorials previously fitted are generally safe, and the new system is only an added safety precaution. For any further details please contact your local retail outlet or local authority.
(This dowelled safety system is one of various NAMM fitting methods)
